JEWSON WESTERN LEAGUE 2025/26

BULLETIN #44

Podcast Episode 40

The final Podcast of the season includes an interview with Barnstaple Town manager, Ben Potter, who reflects on their memorable campaign which was capped by last weekend's Les Phillips Cup Final victory.

Ian and Tom also catch up with Stoner, who chats about his latest fundraising efforts for the Cystic Fibrosis Comfort Fund, and then to mark Mental Health Awareness Week, we hear from James Skinner who talks about his own podcast, which focuses on sobriety, football and mental health.

Thank You to the South West Pool

In another round of thank you's, the league would like to bring attention to the South West Pool of officials who help the league to run successfully. Coordinating schedules and managing complex logistics are just some of the roles carried out by the staff, helping to ensure every fixture can run smoothly.

Annual Convention

Last weekend saw the 2025/26 Convention at the Imperial Hotel in Torquay, with a celebration of the season, looking back at accomplishments and successes from the Jewson League clubs. Awards for Hospitality and Digital Engagements were a big part of the evening, with details of both available on the league's website.
