

Easter Monday Round-ups:

Premier Division: Easter Monday saw Clevedon Town maintain their one-point lead atop the table, with a strong first-half showing helping them beat Brislington 3-1. It took the home side 20 minutes or so to get up and running, with leading scorer Sam Beresford smashing home from close range to put them in front. Jacob Sloggett then quickly made it 2-0, with Beresford using his chest to score the third shortly before half-time. A goal three minutes into the second half from Owen Lingard gave Brislington a slight hope, but it didn't materialise into a comeback, with the Seasiders securing the crucial victory. Second-placed Paulton also picked up three more points, with a derby day triumph at Shepton Mallet earning them local bragging rights. It took a long time for the deadlock to finally be broken, with Rovers' leading marksman Kitan Jaiyeoba on target once again to make it 1-0 midway through the second half. With the game still on a knife edge, and Shepton hunting a late leveller, it was Paulton who pounced, with Jaiyeoba taking advantage of the extra space in behind to double his tally and to complete the 2-0 win. For Torpoint, it was a tough afternoon on their trip across to Devon, where they fell behind on three occasions at Ivybridge before eventually securing a 3-3 draw. The first half was short of incident, and only saw one goal, with Town's Chris Harvey edging his side in front. Dave Barker then tapped home to get Torpoint level ten minutes after the break, with the Ivies quickly going back ahead thanks to a bullet header from Joe Cook. With 15 minutes left on the clock, Torpoint struck again through Freddie Chapman to make it two-apiece, but once more, Ivybridge surged into the lead with Kai Burrell firing home after 83 minutes. That left little time for a response, but the Cornish title-chasers managed to pull off the trick for a third time, with Curtis Damerell lobbing home keeper Jason Peters to make it 3-3 during the final few minutes. Barnstaple took advantage of Torpoint's slip, and jumped up into third place thanks to a 2-0 win away at Bridgwater United. A Josh Parry header set the visitors on their way, before Oscar Knight then wrapped things up in the closing stages, teeing Barnstaple up for their huge clash with Clevedon next weekend. Following their 3-0 victory away at Wellington, Sidmouth Town now need just one point from their final three fixtures to qualify for the end-of-season playoffs. Despite their lowly league position, Wellington have proved a tough nut to crack for many in recent weeks, and only one goal separated the sides for much of Monday afternoon's contest, with a 13th minute penalty from Will Collins edging the Devonians ahead. Collins then struck again with ten minutes remaining to double Town's advantage, but then shortly after he was thwarted from the penalty spot by his namesake in the Wellington goal, Andy Collins. With his chance of a hat-trick seemingly denied, it was Sidmouth's Collins who had the last laugh, with a goal in stoppage time completing his treble, and capping an excellent run of form for him and his side. Newquay are still mathematically in contention for the playoffs after they came from behind to beat Oldland Abbotonians 3-1. An Ibrahima Sarr goal midway through the first half had given the Abbots a surprise lead, before Newquay hit back on the stroke of half-time through Tom Shepherd. A goal from Matt Searle right at the beginning of the second half then put Newquay in front for the first time, with Cam Turner's superb free kick completing the turnaround around the 70-minute mark. Elsewhere, Buckland's season ended in disappointment, with first half goals from Connor Paine and Olly Redd condemning them to a 2-0 defeat at home to Helston, while at the Kimberley Stadium, Saltash enjoyed a strong showing by beating Street 4-0. Kieran O'Melia scored a goal in either half for the Ashes, with Deacon Thomson and Cole Fisher also getting on the scoresheet in their comfortable win over the Cobblers (pictured, right, courtesy of Daz Hands).

First Division: Devizes Town took one more step towards claiming the title after overcoming Odd Down by three goals to one on Easter Monday. (pictured, left, courtesy of Raymond Cunningham). Heading into the game, Devizes knew three straight wins would see them finish top of the pile, and they made a strong start in Bath, going ahead in the 15th minute through Jacob Reader. The home side then hit back ten minutes before half-time, with Josh Howlett heading home from a set piece. Some excellent play on the left-side of the area from Callum Parsons eventually saw the ball fall to Oaklan Buck who fired Devizes back ahead, with substitute Jamie Walters then heading home at the back post to wrap things up ten minutes from time. Second-place Sturminster Newton remain hot on Devizes' tail, and secured their second 1-0 win of the Easter weekend, edging past AEK Boco at Barnett's Field. A 15th minute goal from George Coleman was all that separated the sides on Monday, with United now facing a hat-trick of away games to end the league season.

Wells City secured another one sided victory, beating Radstock 4-1 to retain their strong home form heading into the playoffs. Despite falling behind to a Tommy Nairn penalty inside the opening two minutes, Radstock got back on level terms before half-time courtesy of Charlie Dashfield. A goal shortly after the break from Jake Brown then put Wells ahead, with James Tait extending the lead before a late own goal completed the scoring. Joining Wells in the playoffs will be Avonmouth, who confirmed their spot after winning 1-0 away at Shirehampton. A very early goal from Tom Cheeseman ended up being the match-winner, but Avonmouth faced some nervy moments, and were forced to battle for the final quarter-hour with ten men following a late red card. The final playoff spot will be decided in the final weeks of the season, after both Bristol Telephones and Bitton fell to away defeats on Monday. The Phones conceded a dramatic 95th minute goal to lose 3-2 at Mendip Broadwalk, scuppering their chance to almost confirm fifth spot. After going ahead thanks to an early own goal, the Phones were then facing defeat following goals either side of the break from Mendip duo Rhys Hickery and substitute Dylan Whittle. Archie Dark looked to have done enough to secure the draw following his late equaliser, but it was to be Mendip's day, with Hickery scoring his second in fifth minute of stoppage time to confirm the hosts' 3-2 victory. Meanwhile, Bitton's late-season troubles continued, with their 4-2 defeat away at Longwell Green making it three losses from their last four games. Despite going in front after two minutes courtesy of Sonny Parker, Bitton weren't able to maintain their lead for too long, with the in-form Sonny Passco levelling things up for the hosts. Longwell Green skipper Matt Brown then saw his penalty saved, but managed to make amends 20 minutes from time when he drilled home from the edge of the area to make it 2-1. An Aiden Noble goal then quickly made it two-apiece, but it was the home side who finished with a wind in the sails, going back ahead through Tyler Wood, before Brown then smashed home in the 88th minute to round-off the 4-2 triumph. At the opposite end, Welton confirmed that they wouldn't suffer a bottom-three finish after beating Cheddar 2-0 at West Clewes. Wayne Thorne's side have been in red-hot form, and Rovers managed to beat the Somerset side relatively comfortably following two goals in the space of five first-half minutes from Ben Snell. Bottom-side Hengrove secured a fourth league win of the campaign, piling the pressure on Keynsham following a 2-1 win at the AJN Stadium. After going ahead late in the first half through Elliot Saunders, Hengrove then doubled their advantage around the hour mark thanks to skipper Giorgio Mancini. A late lifeline from substitute Armands Peirags proved to be too little, too late for Keynsham, who face a massive fortnight to salvage their campaign. Elsewhere, two Tyson Pollard goals led Warminster to a 2-1 victory over Calne Town, while Cadbury Heath and Almondsbury played out a rare goalless draw in South Gloucestershire.
